Parent Workshops The school is able to offer parent workshops on a range of topics to help you find out more about how you can support your child's learning and development. What topics would you like to see offered next year?	Suggested workshops from parents listed below. Supporting children/parents with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mathematics Online Safety English - reading, writing and grammar Parenting - how to boost confidence Supporting more able children or those with SEN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Day time and evening workshops requested 	Online Safety workshops have been offered already this term but were not very well attended. As a result, we are reviewing the way workshops are run. As an alternative a variety of workshops on one evening. We will be looking to provide child care on the evening to make the workshops more accessible to parents.
BP School Website We are looking to re-design our school website this forthcoming academic year. Do you have any suggestions or improvements we could consider?	Suggestions for improvements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Allow the class to have a web page Ensure links are working Newsfeed with reminders of events Twitter feed Link for payments Other comments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Communication via the newsletter is very good Website is good as it is 	We are in the process of investigating a new website. The website will have a direct link to Twitter which will provide up to date information about each class. We are also looking to include a web page for each class. Other suggestions will also be looked at.
Assessment Do you feel that you have had enough information regarding our new assessment procedures (STAT) that were introduced in September? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Many positive comments about Open School Morning • Inconsiderate parking outside school • More information about the role of the governors 	We were overwhelmed with all the positive comments we received about Open School Morning, and were delighted that so many parents were able to enjoy seeing both their child/ren and the school operating during the working day. Unfortunately the school are unable to take any direct action to negate the dangerous and inconsiderate parking, despite the many requests that are made in the newsletters. The Governors are in the process of writing a newsletter for this term to inform parents of their role and the key areas of school development that they are responsible for.

Some examples of positive comments...
BP is a great stepping stone to our daughters. They are so proud to be Bishop Perrin students.	Thank you for providing a fantastic school and all the hard work that goes into it.	Just to thank the school team for working so well as a team which truly helps my child learn. I feel so lucky my child attends your school.	The caring family feel of the school means that the older ones take care of the younger ones, and set a good example of behaviour for them.
