Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you for being so patient and cooperative this week when we had to close the school at short notice due to the disrupted water supply. Decisions to close the school will always be the very last resort, so we appreciate your understanding that we had no alternative under the circumstances. Despite the disruption, the children have still had a busy and productive week. It is good to see them settling into their new classes and stepping up to the new expectations of their new year group. Reception class have had their first full days at school this week, and they have done fantastically well adapting to their new routines.

It was nice to see so many parents at the 'Meet the Teacher' meetings for Year 4, 5 and 6 on Tuesday. We hope you found them useful - the teachers enjoyed the opportunity to meet you all. Please find details of the rescheduled meeting for Year 2 and Year 3 parents later in this newsletter. For anyone who couldn't make the sessions, slides will be shared shortly.

Congratulations to our school council representatives who have been elected for the academic year 2023 – 24. Two children from each class in Year 2 – 6 were voted by their classmates to be their pupil voice representative in the school council meetings that will be held with me over the course of the school year. I'm looking forward to meeting with them all soon.

Have a lovely weekend,
Miss Macklearn
