EP - External provider

Please note the following points:

- Many clubs are led by external companies or providers. As such costs are set by the provider.
- Payment for clubs must be upfront before the clubs start. If payment has not been received, the pupil may not be allowed to join in the activities.
- Our wet weather policy for clubs is as follows: sports clubs will either be cancelled or, where practical, classroom-based activities will be put on if the playground/outdoor facilities are unsafe for use.
- Refunds are not available for clubs altered or cancelled due to the weather.
- Refunds cannot be given for clubs if students change their mind or decide not to attend.
- Students who are entitled to PPG can choose to get a school run club for free, or a club run by an external provider (EP) for half price.
- Clubs can be cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances and illness.
- Remember, if someone else is picking up your child from the club, please inform the office of this arrangement ahead of time.

Club Rules:

- Please behave sensibly and responsibly at all times, upholding the school values and behaviour policy.
- Please commit to your chosen club and attend each session.
- Please arrange to be collected on time.
- Remember to bring suitable clothing/equipment. Including a copy of the book if joining Book Club.
- Most importantly... have fun!

Term Notices:

- Clubs (except Mr Brown's Clubs) will begin on the week beginning 24th April.
- Mr Brown will be starting his Summer Term clubs on week beginning 8th May for 8 sessions.
- Bank holidays: Monday 1st of May and 8th May will affect Monday clubs.
- Monday 5th June -INSET Day will affect Monday clubs.
- Monday 29th May – Friday 2nd June Half Term
- Friday 21st July End of Term
- Both Year 5 and Year 6 have a residential trip in the summer term, and will miss a session, unfortunately external providers cannot adjust their charges for a trip only affecting some of their participants and therefore parents of children who will be away on a trip for one week must sign up knowing that they will get one less session.
- Each club is running for a different number of sessions, dependant on timetable and room availability. Please see the above table.
